PAINT THE TOWN RED

WEAR RED // SUPPORT MMIWG

Touchstones Nelson
Museum of Art and History

Touchstones Nelson: Museum of Art and History would like to invite you and your organization to participate in Jamie Black's The REDress project, by participating in our Paint the Town Red awareness campaign.

You can show your support for for MMIWG and LGBTQ2s+ by wearing red on Wednesday, May 5, and by hanging a red dress in the windows of your storefront, office, or house.

We also invite you to come and see The REDress Project, which is showing in Gallery B and at the Nelson City Hall Plaza until Saturday, May 29. This exhibition is a rich opportunity to connect with our regional history, experience this international movement, and learn more about how you can become involved in awareness and changemaking in your community.

To find out more about this project or to participate in a community forum, please email Museum Educator Lesley Garlow at education@touchstonesnelson.ca. and visit our website. We look forward to seeing you at the Museum!
