

Museum Activities: 1984-2002

(All photos are by museum personnel unless noted)

1. SPORTS HISTORY OF NELSON EXHIBITION: Chahko Mika Mall, 1988.
Curators: Fran Wallis and Barbara Brown.
2. FOLLOWING THE MUSE: HISTORY OF THE ARTS IN NELSON:
Scandinavian Church, 1991, Curators: Sandra Hartline, Nicola
Harwood.
3. Writer's corner at FOLLOWING THE MUSE exhibition, 1991.
4. John Norris signs books at launch of "HISTORIC NELSON: THE EARLY YEARS" 1995.
5. An 1890s model at the NELSON: THE BEGINNINGS exhibition, 1989:
Shawn Lamb, Curator.
6. DTUC STAFF AND FAMILIES PHOTO EXHIBITION by Jeremy Addington,
Summer 1984.
7. Evening Performance at FOLLOWING THE MUSE, 1991.
8. PRESENTATION AT CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF NELSON: Nelson
Court House, 1997.
9. Opening reception for CENTENNIAL SAMPLE; NELSON
PHOTOGRAPHERS, 1890-1950. Curated by Fred Rosenberg, at the NELSON CENTENNIAL GALLERY, Baker Street, 1997.
10. KOOTENAY-BOUNDARY JURIED ART EXHIBITION, (Juried Pieces Tour)
Summer 1984.
11. MOCCASINS TO MICHELINS: A HISTORY OF ROADS AND ROAD
TRANSPORTATION IN THE KOOTENAYS, Chahko-Mika Mall, 1992
Curators: Ron Butler, Alex Forde.
12. WOMEN OF NELSON: 1880-1950 EXHIBITION: Chahko-Mika Mall, 1990.
Curators: Brenda Hornby, Yvonne Munro.
13. DOUKHOBOR TEXTILE EXHIBITION from the collection of STAN
SHERSTOBITOFF, 1980s.
14. Ron Welwood speaks at the NELSON CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION:
1997.
15. Hanging a show at the Mildred Erb Gallery.
16. Reception for the City Band, GUEST CONCERT at the Nelson
Museum: 1984.
17. Public program at the DTUC STAFF AND FAMILIES PHOTO EXHIBIT:
1984.
18. Bert Learmonth inspecting his new model of local hero V.C. winner
Robert Hampton Gray's ship, the HMS FORMIDABLE, and some of Bradley Forsberg's models of W.W. II planes: 2003.

19. Mildred Erb Gallery guests at an opening reception: 1984.
20. Alex Forde's mural for WINGING IT: THE HISTORY OF AVIATION IN AROUND NELSON. B.C., Curated by Henry Stevenson and Judy Mulloy: 1994.
21. Looking at the Theatre Section of the FOLLOWING THE MUSE exhibition: 1991.
22. KOKANEE STRING QUARTET performs at an opening. 1984.
23. Curators of the touring CROWSNEST ROUTE CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION, Randal MacNair and Gary Anderson of the Canadian Museum of Rail Travel, visit the show in Nelson. The NELSON ADDITION to the exhibition (brighter red) was Curated for the Nelson Museum by Katie Livingston, and a model of the Nelson Transfer wharf was constructed by Bert Learmonth, 1998.
24. GUEST CONCERT by the NELSON CITY BAND, 1984.
25. Teresa Southam welcomes the crowd at the DTUC STAFF PHOTO SHOW, 1984.
26. Touring CROWSNEST ROUTE CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION, Nelson show, 1998.
27. An elegantly dressed model at the NELSON: THE BEGINNINGS exhibition, 1989.
28. The work of Nelson's photographers from 1880-1950 shines in the Nelson Centennial Gallery, 1997.
29. LOGGERS, MILLOWNERS AND COMMUNITIES, touring regional forest history exhibition curated by Charles Jeanes for the Nelson Museum Forest History Project, 1995-6.
30. 2001 Nelson Citizen of the Year, Frances Welwood, at the 1997 NELSON CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION, organized by the Nelson University Women's Club. Love that hat!
31. Alan Ramsden(r), then Museum President, talks to a visitor at the FOLLOWING THE MUSE: HISTORY OF THE ARTS IN NELSON, B.C. EXHIBITION, Scandanavian Church, 1991.
32. Visitors at a Mildred Erb Gallery exhibition: 1984.
33. Loggers' bunkhouse beds designed and built by Peter Pokorny for the LOGGERS, MILLOWNERS AND COMMUNITIES exhibition: 1995-6.
34. Shawn Lamb ready to take afternoon tea with the ladies depicted on Yvonne Munro's mural for the WOMEN OF NELSON 1880-1950 exhibition: 1990.
35. Looking at the history of early flight around Nelson at WINGING IT: THE HISTORY OF AVIATION IN AND AROUND NELSON: 1994.

36. FOLLOWING THE MUSE : Margaret Stegman (l) and curator Sandra Hartline (r) chat, 1991.